SCHOOL EMPLOYEES GET PAY

PAYROLL APPROVED AS ADVANCE DRAW ON TAXES PROMISED

Abandon Plans For Loan; Regular Bills Deferred

Seventy teachers, janitors and other employes in the Xenia public schools were scheduled to receive their pay for the last two weeks as usual Friday.

The bi-monthly payroll amounting to $5,200 was approved by the board of education Thursday night after members had been assured by County Auditor James J. Curlett of obtaining Friday an advance draw of $4,200 on the present tax collection in Xenia city.

With only slightly more than a $1,000 balance on hand at the close of 1931 and the Xenia city tax collection delayed later than usual due to unavoidable reasons, the school board was face to face with a financial problem.

In the event it proved impossible to receive an advance draw on the tax collection, the board had planned to borrow funds in anticipation of collection of taxes in order to meet the payroll due Friday.

The board, at its meeting Thursday night, deferred approval, however, of the regular bills aggregating less than $1,000, until more tax money is available.

Since the time for payment of real estate, special assessment and delinquent personal property taxes expires February 1, the school board hopes to obtain another advance draw in order to pay the next payroll and also all bills that have accumulated. The next board meeting will be January 28.

The school board also passed its annual appropriation resolution for 1932. After the county auditor had certified $129,000 to the board as probably being available for the general operating fund and $55,000 for the interest and sinking fund, the board passed safe by appropriating only $122,000 in the general fund, or $7,000 under the auditor's estimate.

It was necessary, however, to appropriate $55,000 to pay interest and principal on the bonded debt.

The auditor's estimate of revenue that will accrue to the public schools from taxation is based on the present tax rate as applied against the known real estate duplicate providing all taxes are collected. The probable revenue from personal property and intangibles is estimated by the auditor.

In addition to the revenue received from taxation, the board also counts upon realizing $9,000 more or less every year from outside sources, including tuition, interest on daily deposits, rental of the school and state aid.

The board derived $123,000 from all sources in 1931, but found it necessary to transfer $6,000 to the interest and sinking fund. The $1,000 balance when the year ended was due to the fact the opening of the 1931-32 school year was delayed for two weeks, thereby providing a saving of $5,200 in the payroll and other expenses incidental to operation of the schools.

Janitors of the various school buildings were re-elected for another year and sub-committees to serve throughout the year were appointed by James D. Adair, president of the board.

Carter and William Sanders, 22, Negro, were arrested following an attempted hold-up of William Kemp here last Saturday.

PROPOSED FINANCE BILL EXPECTED TO PASS AFTER BATTLE

Fight On Amendments Has Split Party Leaders

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The administration's $2,000,000,000 finance corporation bill was expected to pass the House today but only after new battles to force radical changes in the measure.

The schedule of leaders in charge of the bill had been disrupted by fights for amendments, in which party lines were broken.

Only one major change had been made thus far: adoption of the Jones amendment allotting 10 per cent of the capital stock and bonding power of the corporation to agriculture.

Representatives of big cities, chiefly New York and Chicago, planned a new attempt to write into the bill power to lend to municipalities after the amendment of Rep. Prall (D) of New York was ruled out of order.

All efforts of spokesmen for both sides to accept the ruling as final, backers of the amendment had devised a new plan by which they believe they can force a vote.

"I shall offer the amendment again with the approval of representatives from New York, Chicago and backing of other cities," said Prall. "I think I have found a way to make it in order."

Carter and William Sanders, 22, Negro, were arrested following an attempted hold-up of William Kemp here last Saturday.

DEMOCRATS FAIL TO CLEAR NOMINATION ISSUE AT BANQUETS

Smith Still Enigma; Boom Started For Harry Byrd

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The gale of Democratic oratory which swept the nation last night at upwards of a hundred "victory dinners" did little to clarify the muddy waters surrounding the presidential nomination.

If anything, the Democratic gatherings only served to deepen the uncertainty and to make the enigmatic Alfred E. Smith more of a question mark than before.

Summarized, the dinners had these results:

1. At Boston, ex-Gov. Smith remained silent in the face of an open prediction that his party would "draft" him in the forthcoming presidential campaign. He neither signified his acceptance or rejection of invitations that he again become the party's standard bearer.

2. At New York, Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who possesses more delegates, actual and potential, than any other candidate, assailed the Republican national leadership, called for a new deal in taxation, but remained eloquently silent on the question of his own candidacy.

3. At Washington, the potential candidacy of Speaker "Jack" Garner of Texas, took on added significance as capital Democrats cheered his name and his record of leadership in the seventy-second congress.

4. At Chicago, Democrats were warned that the only thing which can defeat them in 1932 is "over confidence." "We have won elections before in January only to be divided and defeated in November," said Jonett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic executive committee.

5. At Columbus, O., Senator Robert J. Bulkley, figured by some as a "dark horse" candidate for the presidency, made a ringing appeal to his party to solve the prohibition question, and to take a firm stand against the internationalism that contemplates further cancellation of Europe's debts.

6. At Richmond, a boom was started for ex-Gov. Harry F. Byrd. The Virginia house of delegates and the state senate unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing his candidacy.

Naturally, chief interest in last night's events centered in the appearances of Gov. Roosevelt and ex-Gov. Smith. They appeared on different platforms, Roosevelt in New York, Smith in Boston.

If the Democrats throughout the country hoped for clarification of Smith's position toward the 1932 nomination they were disappointed. For the enigmatic "A" had nothing to say about his own future. He assailed the Republican leadership in his inimitable way, and appealed to his party to take a bold stand on prohibition. But on the question of his own possible candidacy he was eloquently silent—even in the face of an open invitation for him to throw his hat in the ring.

"Gov. Smith," said Daniel Gallagher, a Boston lawyer, "the newspapers have been saying to you tell us your plans."

"Go slow with your plans until you hear from the people. The party is going to draft you. Don't throw away that brown derby. You will need it again, and it will not look bad when you hang it up down in Washington."

Grinning broadly, but remaining silent, Smith took his seat in the midst of the ensuing ovation.

Smith's silence was matched only by Roosevelt's.

Several thousand diners in New York heard him speak, brilliantly and forcefully, of the necessity for reorganization of the whole tax system, state and national, heard him criticize Republican leadership in the economic crisis, but speak no word of candidacies.

The time was ripe, for North Dakota Democrats had only a few hours before invited him to come to their state with his candidacy and take over its delegates to the next Democratic convention. But if Gov. Roosevelt was aware of it he gave no sign. His hearers, among them John J. Raskob, who has been accused of heading a movement to "stop Roosevelt" waited in vain.

BULKLEY WILL SEEK NEW TERM REVEALED AT PARTY BANQUET

Prohibition Issue Is Thrust Into Lap Of Ohio Democrats

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16.—Prohibition was forced to the front as a state issue in the 1932 political campaign today after U. S. Senator Robert J. Bulkley, wet Democrat of Cleveland, unexpectedly announced his candidacy for reelection here last night following a new attack on the eighteenth amendment.

The applause and cheering of hundreds of Ohio Democrats when he made his surprise announcement at a state-wide "victory dinner" attended by Governor George White, U. S. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, and other celebrities, thrust the liquor question forcibly before state Democratic chieftains who have constantly tried to avoid it for harmony purposes.

A crowd of 2300 Ohio Democrats packed the meeting, which launched the 1932 state campaign against Republicans. Senators Bulkley and Lewis attacked the Hoover administration from nearly every angle and promised a Democratic presidential triumph this year.

Sharing the same enthusiasm and optimism, Governor White, reviewing 1931 in Ohio, declared that "both houses of the last legislature were predominantly Republican, but they won't be the next time."

On the surface, complete harmony prevailed. Former Congressman Martin L. Davey attended, but made no effort to upset the plan to win the Ohio presidential delegation for White and push the candidacy of Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war, as he has done by letters and speeches in recent weeks.

Senator Bulkley was applauded the first moment he touched upon prohibition in his address, and was cheered repeatedly as he continued discussing the subject. After stating he had "something personal" to mention, he announced his candidacy for reelection.

Democrats were assured by Bulkley that he has not forgotten his pledge "to do all in my power to the end that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution shall be repealed as some day it must be."

"I hope this issue may not cause dissension in our own party yet it seems to me clear that whether or not the question shall be made a party issue, it is bound to be a great public issue having its bearing on all elections to be held this year," he stated, and added:

"I still believe it is the duty of every candidate for either branch of congress to make his branch complete frankness where he stands on this issue."

At a seventh congressional district caucus before the dinner, Paul F. Dye, Urbana, son of Thomas E. Dye, state central committeeman, was endorsed as a candidate for congressman-at-large and Charles B. Zimmerman, Springfield, was endorsed for the nomination for supreme court judge. Dye was a Democratic district candidate for congress several years ago.

Succeeds Dr. Chambliss At Re-Organization Meeting

City Commission reorganized for the next two years at the first scheduled meeting of 1932 Thursday night.

Harry M. Fisher, was elected president of the commission, while I. S. Dines was named vice-president and Commissioner Jacob Kany was again designated to serve as mayor of the city.

Dr. Frank M. Chambliss is the retiring president of the commission, having served in this capacity for two years. Commissioner Fisher had previously been vice-president.

All the commissioners were present except Henry L. Binder, who is submitting to treatment at a Dayton hospital.

Two of the commissioners, elected in November, began new terms of office. Commissioner Dines started his first elective term after completing an appointive term, and Commissioner Kany began his second four-year elective term.

With no legislation of importance to be considered, the commission transacted only routine business after completing its reorganization.

LABOR AND CAPITAL CONFER IN CHICAGO ON WAGE SCHEDULE

Open History - Making Session To Discuss Problems

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Barring unforeseen obstacles, representatives of labor and capital of the nation's railroads were to open their history-making conference on wage cuts and unemployment here today.

Opening of the conference yesterday, as scheduled, was postponed when the committee of nine rail presidents reported it had not received full authority to negotiate. This authority was obtained late yesterday and during the night, according to Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio and chairman of the carriers' group.

"We now have power to go ahead with the discussions," he informed International News Service this morning. "We are prepared to come to a final decision on any matters brought up in the meeting."

There remained a few matters to be ironed out, Willard explained, but the joint conference probably will not begin until 2 o'clock this afternoon. There was a possibility the sessions would not get underway until tomorrow.

Willard declared his committee would go into the conference "with an open mind." He refused to affirm widely circulated reports that a voluntary wage reduction of 10 or 15 per cent would be asked.

The heads of twenty-one railway brotherhoods, representing 1,900,000 workers, were ready to ask a six-hour day and a stabilization plan to cut unemployment.

IRON LANTERN WILL MOVE TO GREEN ST.

The Iron Lantern Cafe, operated by Edward J. Kraft in the Messenger Bldg., at Second and Detroit Sts., the past two years, will be moved February 1 to 17 Green St., in the room owned by D. M. Davidson and formerly occupied by the Lula Faye dining room. It was disclosed by Mr. Kraft Friday.

The room will undergo extensive remodeling and a room on the second floor will be equipped to serve banquets and large parties. A stairway to the second floor which opened from the kitchen will be changed and will lead from the dining room. The kitchen will be closed, instead of open as heretofore, it is said.

The entire stock of the Iron Lantern will be moved to the new location and the name "Iron Lantern" will be retained.

The Lula Faye dining room was placed in the hands of an assignee several weeks ago and the stock will probably be closed out soon.

SCHOOL BOY TURNS ROBBER FOR THRILL

CLEVELAND, Jan. 15.—Joining a robber gang "just for the excitement," according to police, Anthony Nardi, 19, a Denison, O., high school senior, today awaited a hearing in police court here on a charge of participating in the hold-up of the New Hope restaurant last December 29.

The youth, police said, admitted that he came to Cleveland during the Christmas holidays and became a member of a youthful robber gang because he heard "there was a lot of kick in it."

WINTRY BLASTS ARE SCHEDULED IN WAKE OF SPRING WEATHER

San Francisco And Pacific Coast Are Whipped By Storm

By International News Service

Although it is only "the lull before the storm," according to the predictions of weather observers, mild, balmy breezes reminiscent of springtime swept over Ohio today following the winter's heaviest rainfall which pounded the state with the clap and flash of thunder and lightning.

Abnormally high temperatures which have shattered all-time January heat records continued to hold sway, but weather officials say that the "spring-spell" is short-lived and that the cold, wintry blasts of "ole man winter" are on their way.

For the time being, however, Ohioans basked in the balmy breezes. Winter clothing was conspicuous by its absence. Store doors and office windows were thrown wide open. Flowers bloomed; birds sang; robins were reported seen in many sections and the springtime atmosphere was prevalent everywhere.

Rain battered central Ohio last night. Many sections reported a light hail storm but its intensity was not severe enough to cause widespread damage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The wildest storm in many years hit the Pacific Coast and whipped through California on a wind of gale velocity.

San Francisco witnessed a cold roaring wind that carried snow, hail and driving rain.

Poles were torn down. Ferry boats ploughing between San Francisco and east-bay cities were disabled by gigantic waves. One ferryboat drifted helplessly for two hours with her engine rooms flooded. After being mercilessly buffeted she was taken in tow by tugs.

A real snow and hail blizzard buried San Francisco's residential districts in an inch of snow.

A huge ammunition barge tore away from the side of the navy battleship Pennsylvania. The barge almost drifted into the ferryboat lines before a crew of forty-three sailors in tugs could drop anchor.

The United States Weather Bureau ordered storm warnings posted along the entire Pacific coast. The storm caused all airplane schedules suspended, train schedules were delayed.

The blast shattered windows in three nearby homes.

Pratt, his wife, and their four children were in the house at the time the dynamite exploded but escaped uninjured.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—A slight seasonal improvement was noted in Ohio industrial employment in December over that of November, the bureau of business research at Ohio State University reported. BRUTALITY CLAIMS MADE BY PRISONERS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Prison Guards Killed Convicts Probers Are Told

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—Told by prisoners that convicts have been murdered by guards, or "head hunters," in the Ohio Penitentiary, and that Warden Preston E. Thomas uses a "stool pigeon" system, state senate investigators, after adjourning for the week-end, announced today they will continue their probe Tuesday.

Determination to inquire thoroughly into charges made yesterday when the investigating committee visited the prison and called prisoners from their cells to relate what they know of alleged brutality was announced by Chairman Roy J. Gillen (R) of Wellston.

The charge that guards have murdered convicts, which has been mentioned in testimony by discharged guards questioned Tuesday, was brought out by the committee in more detail with the interrogation of William Baron, Mahoning County bank robber serving a fifty-year term.

Guards named Briggs and Tracy fatally shot a Negro prisoner named Bethel, Baron charged, while Bethel was running from them.

Baron, who testified he is "one man who is not afraid of Warden Thomas," charged that Briggs whom he described as "what the prisoners call a 'killer'" shot Tracy times at Bethel and that Tracy "finished him."

Warden Thomas "likes killers and raises their pay," Baron charged.

"Let me tell you something," he continued. "If you don't do something about it, the next time anything happens here the rest of the state you've been reading about will be like a picnic in comparison."

"Red" Allen, a prisoner, was killed in 1930 by a guard, Burton Carter, a Darke County prisoner serving twenty-five years for robbery, testified, but did not cite any details.

Carter, who said he frequently had a 100-pound ball and chain attached to his legs, and that it was removed only when he took a bath, once a week, added to "stool pigeon" charges by Baron.

A Hungarian prisoner named Kish, he said, is the leading "stool pigeon" and is empowered to boss even the guards. The Ohio Penitentiary News, weekly publication, is operated by men "who are trying to stool-pigeon their way out," he added.

Some prisoners, he told the committee are willing to be "stool pigeons," because "the warden for several years dictated to clemency boards and told them whom he wanted let out."

According to testimony by Carter, there has been a sudden improvement in the meals at the prison. "Tuesday we got the same dinner the guards got and yesterday we got an extraordinarily good dinner," he said.

Three men summoned defied the committee and refused to say anything.

Albert E. "Red" Holt of Cleveland, a life-terminer, and Dewey N. Long, also of Cleveland, who is serving a ten to twenty-five year term for robbery, would not assist, nor would they explain why.

Saying "this talk about me being anti-social is a lot of hokey," Holt demanded "to be let alone." Long said he was "frantically embarrassed" and had nothing to say. Charles Foster, who is held for burglary, refused to appear before the committee.

Former Franklin County Prosecutor John J. Chester of Columbus is to be one of the witnesses called next week, it was stated.

FREED IN SHOOTING

EATON, O., Jan. 15.—Larimore Charles today had been exonerated in the fatal shooting of Stanley Rose, 29, who was killed when he attempted to steal chickens from the Charles farm Thursday, authorities said. Jack Todd, a companion of Rose was held on a charge of grand larceny.

Then her mother came to the rescue and advertised some of Judy's old evening dresses for sale in the Classified columns of THE EVENING GAZETTE, sold them within a few days. In short, Judy, went to the fraternity dance in the most perfectly adorable new dress bought with the money from the sale of the old ones. Why don't you try the Classified Ads? Just phone 111.

SCHOOL EMPLOYEES GET PAY

FAYROLL APPROVED AS ADVANCE DRAW ON TAXES PROMISED

Abandon Plans For Loan; Regular Bills Deferred

Seventy teachers, janitors and other employees in the Xenia public schools were scheduled to receive their pay for the last two weeks as usual Friday.

The bi-monthly payroll amounting to $5,200 was approved by the board of education Thursday night after members had been assured by County Auditor James J. Curlett of obtaining Friday an advance draw of $4,200 on the present tax collection in Xenia city.

With only slightly more than a $1,000 balance on hand at the close of 1931 and the Xenia city tax collection delayed later than usual due to unavoidable reasons, the school board was face to face with a financial problem.

In the event it proved impossible to receive an advance draw on the tax collection, the board had planned to borrow funds in anticipation of collection of taxes in order to meet the payroll due Friday.

The board, at its meeting Thursday night, deferred approval, however, of the regular bills aggregating less than $1,000, until more tax money is available.

Since the time for payment of real estate, special assessment and delinquent personal property taxes expires February 1, the school board hopes to obtain another advance draw in order to pay the next payroll and also all bills that have accumulated. The next board meeting will be January 28.

The school board also passed its annual appropriation resolution for 1932. After the county auditor had certified $129,000 to the board as probably being available for the general operating fund and $55,000 for the interest and sinking fund, the board played safe by appropriating only $122,000 in the general fund, or $7,000 under the auditor's estimate.

It was necessary, however, to appropriate $55,000 to pay interest and principal on the bonded debt. The auditor's estimate of revenue that will accrue to the public schools from taxation is based on the present tax rate as applied against the known real estate duplicate providing all taxes are collected. The probable revenue from personal property and intangibles is estimated by the auditor.

In addition to the revenue received from taxation, the board also counts upon realizing $9,000 more or less every year from outside sources, including tuition, interest on daily deposits, rental of the school and state aid.

The board derived $123,000 from all sources in 1931, but found it necessary to transfer $6,000 to the interest and sinking fund. The $1,000 balance when the year ended was due to the fact the opening of the 1931-32 school year was delayed for two weeks, thereby providing a saving of $5,200 in the payroll and other expenses incidental to operation of the schools.

Desolation Spread As Plantation Region Is Inundated

GLENDORA, Miss., Jan. 15.—Hundreds of families fled before the wrath of the rising Tallahatchee River today.

Desolation spread rapidly over this fertile delta region as a consequence of a break in the main levee. An eight-foot wall of water thundered through the giant gap in the levee, rushing on a direct path toward this community.

Some 30,000 acres of rich plantation country was inundated. Because of the suddenness with which the great levee collapsed, it was feared many persons, unwarned, might have lost their lives in this new onrush of a deluge which has plagued the region for the past three weeks.

An appeal for boats to rescue marooned families was issued by W. R. Gray, commissioner of levees. Five thousand inhabitants of this district were imperiled. Hundreds abandoned their homes and sought haven in the higher reaches when warned of the levee's collapse.

It was feared the avalanche of water might have exacted a heavy toll of lives on isolated plantations where warnings could not be communicated in time.

The collapse of the main levee climaxed the prolonged flood and rendered the situation more serious than ever. The danger of famine and hunger complicated the dire conditions created by the deluge.

Several thousand diners in New York heard him lim speak, brilliantly and forcefully, of the necessity for reorganization of the whole tax system, state and national, heard him criticize Republican leadership in the economic crisis, but speak no word of candidacies.

The time was ripe, for North Dakota Democrats had only a few hours before invited him to come into their state with his candidacy and take over its delegates to the next Democratic convention, but if Gov. Roosevelt was aware of it he gave no sign. His hearers, among them John J. Raabok, who has been accused of heading a movement to "stop Roosevelt" waited in vain.

BULKLEY WILL SEEK NEW TERM REVEALED AT PARTY BANQUET

Prohibition Issue Is Thrust Into Lap Of Ohio Democrats

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16.—Prohibition was forced to the front as a state issue in the 1932 political campaign today after U. S. Senator Robert J. Bulkley, wet Democrat of Cleveland, unexpectedly announced his candidacy for reelection here last night following a new attack on the eighteenth amendment.

The applause and cheering of hundreds of Ohio Democrats when he made his surprise announcement at a state-wide "victory dinner" attended by Governor George White, U. S. Senator J. Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, and other celebrities, thrust the liquor question forcibly before state Democratic chieftains who have constantly tried to avoid it for harmony purposes.

A crowd of 2300 Ohio Democrats packed the meeting, which launched the 1932 state campaign against Republicans. Senators Bulkley and Lewis attacked the Hoover administration from nearly every angle and promised a Democratic presidential triumph this year.

Sharing the same enthusiasm and optimism, Governor White, reviewing 1931 in Ohio, declared that "both houses of the last legislature were predominantly Republican, but they won't be the next time."

On the surface, complete harmony prevailed. Former Congressman Martin L. Dayer attended, but made no effort to upset the plan to win the Ohio presidential delegation for White and push the candidacy of Newton D. Baker, for former secretary of war, as he has done by letters and speeches in recent weeks.

Senator Bulkley was applauded the first moment he touched upon prohibition in his address, and was cheered repeatedly as he continued discussing the subject. After stating he had "something personal" to mention, he announced his candidacy for reelection.

Democrats were assured by Bulkley that he has not forgotten his pledge "to do all in my power to the end that the eighteenth amendment to the constitution shall be repealed as soon as it must be."

"I hope this issue may not cause dissension in our own party yet it seems to me clear that whether or not the question shall be made a party issue, it is bound to be a great public issue having its bearing on all elections to be held this year," he stated, and added:

"I still believe it is the duty of every candidate for either branch of congress to make known where he stands on this issue."

At a seventh congressional district caucus before the dinner, Paul P. Dye, Urbana, son of Thomas E. Dye, state central committeeman, was endorsed as a candidate for congressman-at-large and Charles B. Zimmerman, Springfield attorney, was endorsed for the nomination for supreme court judge. Dye was a Democratic district candidate for congress several years ago.

MAY LINK THREE YOUTHS WITH SHOOTING OF DEPUTY SHERIFF

GREENUP, Ky., Jan. 15.—Attempts to link three Toledo, W. Va., who lies with a bullet wound in his brain at a Gallipolis hospital.

The shooting occurred when Mason County authorities pursued a car which failed to stop for toll bridge payments. The Toledo boys were arrested here yesterday for a similar offense. If the youths are not identified with the Sayre shooting, they will be turned over to Toledo authorities for prosecution under the Dyer act.

Succeeds Dr. Chambliss At Re-Organization Meeting

City Commission reorganized for the next two years at the first scheduled meeting of 1932 Thursday night.

Harry M. Fisher, was elected president of the commission, while I. S. Dines was named vice-president and Commissioner Jacob Kany was again designated to serve as mayor of the city.

Dr. Frank M. Chambliss is the retiring president of the commission, having served in this capacity for two years. Commissioner Fisher had previously been vice-president.

All the commissioners were present except Henry L. Binder, who is submitting to treatment at a Dayton hospital.

Two of the commissioners, elected in November, began new terms of office. Commissioner Dines started his first elective term after completing an appointive term, and Commissioner Kany began his second four-year elective term.

With no legislation of importance to be considered, the commission transacted only routine business after completing its reorganization.

LABOR AND CAPITAL CONFER IN CHICAGO ON WAGE SCHEDULE

Open History - Making Session To Discuss Problems

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Barring unforeseen obstacles, representatives of labor and capital of the nation's railroads were to open their history-making conference on wage cuts and unemployment here today.

Opening of the conference yesterday, as scheduled, was postponed when the committee of nine rail presidents reported it had not received full authority to negotiate. This authority was obtained late yesterday and during the night, according to Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio and chairman of the carriers' group.

"We now have power to go ahead with the discussions," he informed International News Service this morning. "We are prepared to come to a final decision on any matter brought up in the meeting."

There remained a few matters to be ironed out, Willard explained, so the joint conference probably will not begin until 2 o'clock this afternoon. There was a possibility the sessions would not get underway until tomorrow.

Willard declared his committee would go into the conference "with an open mind." He refused to affirm widely circulated reports that a voluntary wage reduction of 15 per cent would be asked.

The heads of twenty-one railway brotherhoods, representing 1,900,000 workers, were ready to ask a six-hour day and a stabilization plan to cut unemployment.

IRON LANTERN WILL MOVE TO GREEN ST.

The Iron Lantern Cafe, operated by Edward J. Kraft in the Messenger Bldg., at Second and Detroit Sts., the past two years, will be moved February 1 to 17 Green St., in the room owned by D. M. Davidson and formerly occupied by the Lulu Faye dining room. It was disclosed by Mr. Kraft Friday.

The room will undergo extensive remodeling and a room on the second floor will be equipped to serve banquets and large parties. A stairway to the second floor which opened from the kitchen will be changed and will lead from the dining room. The kitchen will be closed, instead of open as heretofore, it is said.

The entire stock of the Iron Lantern will be moved to the new location and the name "Iron Lantern" will be retained.

The Lulu Faye dining room was placed in the hands of an assignee several weeks ago and the stock will probably be closed out soon.

SCHOOL BOY TURNS ROBBER FOR THRILL

CLEVELAND, Jan. 15.—Joining a robber gang "just for the excitement," according to police, Anthony Nardi, 19, a Dennison, O., high school senior, today awaited a hearing in police court here on a charge of participating in the hold-up of the New Hope restaurant last December 29.

The youth, police said, admitted that he came to Cleveland during the Christmas holidays and became a member of a youthful robber gang because he heard "there was a lot of kick in it."

WINTRY BLASTS ARE SCHEDULED IN WAKE OF SPRING WEATHER

San Francisco And Pacific Coast Are Whipped By Storm

By International News Service

Although it is only "the lull before the storm," according to the predictions of weather observers, mild, balmy breezes reminiscent of springtime swept over Ohio today following the winter's heaviest rainfall which pounded the state with the clap and flash of thunder and lightning.

Abnormally high temperatures which have shattered all-time January heat records continued to hold sway, but weather officials say that the "spring-spell" is short-lived and that the cold, wintry blasts of 'ole man winter are on their way.

For the time being, however, Ohioans basked in the balmy breezes. Winter clothing was conspicuous by its absence. Store doors and office windows were thrown wide open. Flowers bloomed; birds sang; robins were reported seen in many sections and the spring-time atmosphere was prevalent everywhere.

Rain battered central Ohio last night. Many sections reported a light hail storm but its intensity was not severe enough to cause widespread damage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The wildest storm in many years hit the Pacific Coast and whipped through California on a wind of gale velocity.

San Francisco witnessed a cold roaring wind that carried snow, hail and driving rain.

Ferry boats ploughing between San Francisco and east-bay cities were disabled by gigantic waves. One ferryboat drifted helplessly for two hours with her engine rooms flooded. After being mercilessly buffeted she was taken in tow by tugs.

A real snow and hail blizzard buried San Francisco's residential districts in an inch of snow.

A huge ammunition barge tore away from the side of the navy battleship Pennsylvania. The barge almost drifted into the ferryboat lines before a crew of forty-three sailors in tugs could drop anchor.

The United States Weather Bureau ordered storm warnings posted along the entire Pacific coast. The storm caused all airplane schedules suspended, train schedules were delayed.

FAMILY UNHURT AS BOMB WRECKS PORCH

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Jan. 15.—Enemies who had previously threatened the family with poisoning were today believed responsible for the dynamite explosion yesterday which demolished the porch of the home of Patay Pratt. The blast shattered windows in three nearby homes.

Pratt, his wife, and their four children were in the house at the time the dynamite exploded but escaped uninjured.

EMPLOYMENT GAINS

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—A slight seasonal improvement was noted in Ohio industrial employment in December over that of November, the bureau of business research at Ohio State University reported. Bureau statistics showed that 319 of 969 concerns reporting had increased employment in December and thirty-one others had no further decline from November.

TRAIN KILLED TWO

CLEVELAND, Jan. 15.—Suffering fatal injuries when they stepped from behind a moving freight train into the path of a speeding passenger train, Mrs. Mary Kies, 40, and her six year old grandson, Joseph Mudgeth, were dead here today.

BRUTALITY CLAIMS MADE BY PRISONERS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Prison Guards Killed Convicts Probers Are Told

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15.—Told by prisoners that convicts have been murdered by guards, or "head hunters," in the Ohio Penitentiary, and that Warden Preston E. Thomas uses a "stool pigeon" system, state senate investigators, after adjourning for the week-end, announced today they will continue their probe Tuesday.

Determination to inquire thoroughly into charges made yesterday when the investigating committee visited the prison and called prisoners from their cells to relate what they know of alleged brutality was announced by Chairman Roy J. Gillen (R) of Weston.

The charge that guards have murdered convicts, which has been mentioned in testimony by discharged guards questioned Tuesday, was brought out by the committee in more detail with the interrogation of William Baron, Mahoning County bank robber serving a fifty-year term.

Guards named Briggs and Tracy fatally shot a Negro prisoner named Bethel, Baron charged, while Bethel was running from them.

Baron, who testified he is "one man who is not afraid of Warden Thomas," charged that Briggs whom he described as "what the prisoners call a 'killer'" shot Tracy times at Bethel and that Tracy "finished him."

Warden Thomas "likes killers and raises their pay," Baron charged.

"Let me tell you something," he continued. "If you don't do something about it, the next time anything happens here the rest of the riots you've been reading about will be like a picnic in comparison."

"Red" Allen, a prisoner, was killed in 1930 by a guard, Burton Carter, a Darke County prisoner serving twenty-five years for robbery, testified, but did not cite any details.

Carter, who said he frequently had a 100-pound ball and chain attached to his legs, and that it was removed only when he took a bath, once a week, added to "stool pigeon" charges by Baron.

A Hungarian prisoner named Kish, he said, is the leading "stool pigeon," and is empowered to boss even the guards. The Ohio Penitentiary News, weekly publication, is operated by men "who are trying to stool-pigeon their way out," he added.

Some prisoners, he told the committee are willing to be "stool pigeons," because "the warden for several years dictated to clemency boards and told them whom he wanted let out."

According to testimony by Carter, there has been a sudden improvement in the meals at the prison. "Tuesday we got the same dinner the guards got and yesterday we got an extraordinarily good dinner," he said.

Three men summoned defied the committee and refused to say anything.

Albert E. "Red" Holt of Cleveland, a life-terminer, and Dewey N. Long, also of Cleveland, who is serving a ten to twenty-five year term for robbery, would not assist, nor would they explain why.

Saying "this talk about me being anti-social is a lot of hooey," Holt demanded "to be let alone." Long said he did not request an audience and had nothing to say.

Charles Foster, who is held for burglary, refused to appear before the committee.

Former Franklin County Prosecutor John J. Chester of Columbus is to be one of the witnesses called next week, it was stated.

FREED IN SHOOTING

EATON, O., Jan. 15.—Larimore Charles today held her exonerated in the fatal shooting of Stanley Rose, 29, who was killed when he attempted to steal chickens from the Charles farm Thursday, authorities said. Jack Todd, a companion of Rose was held on a charge of grand larceny.

JUDY LEARNS HOW

JUDY was faced with a perplexing problem. She had been invited to the big dance at the "Sig" house and she was in dire need of a new dress. Like many girls, at this time she was "financially embarrassed." And she couldn't figure just where she was to get the dress. Then her mother came to the rescue and advertised some of Judy's old evening dresses for sale in the Classified columns of THE EVENING GAZETTE. She sold them within a few days—in short, Judy went to the perfectly adorable new dress bought with the money from the sale of the old ones. Why don't you try the Classified Ads? Just phone 111.

YOUNG PEOPLE HEAR SPIRITUAL ADVICE AT TRINITY CHURCH

Despite inclement weather a large audience attended revival services at Trinity M. E. Church Thursday evening when the Rev. C. A. Hutchison, Cedarville, spoke on "Now Or Never." Members of Lebanon League, composed of young people from Dayton and Xenia, were present and added interest to the service with their choruses, testimonies and prayers. The Rev. Mr. Hutchison opened his sermon with the question, "I wonder if we could live life over how many things we would change if we could?" He continued by saying, "There are many things I wouldn't change in my life if I could. Any child who is able to write his name in a copy book is able to write his name in the Lamb's book of life. We have something of which we are certain. Something that we know. That is that the longer we serve Jesus Christ the better the experience grows. The wealth of God is only limited by the size of our spiritual pocketbook."

The speaker then continued, "The fall of a young person does not come in one night but it comes by skating on thin ice for a number of weeks before. Young man, I say to you that it is better for you to be saved before you have to eat with the pigs as did the prodigal, than to be picked out of the pig pen. God pity the individual who waits till later days to find God and then finds he cannot any more take up the broken strands of life and knit them together."

At the close of the service six young people responded to the invitation to make decisions for Christ. Following the service the Rev. E. A. Rager, pastor of the church, met with twenty young people and organized the Trinity Prayer League by accepting the following pledge: "Trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ for strength, I hereby dedicate my life to Him for a closer relationship, and, to help me live a Christian life that is true and wholly dedicated to God's Holy Spirit I hereby declare myself, and promise God to attend the prayer service and Bible study of the Trinity Prayer League for Youth at Trinity M. E. Church each Thursday at 7:30 p. m. beginning January 21, 1932."

Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock the Rev. Mr. Hutchison will preach on the subject, "The New Birth."

COLLEGE DEBATERS DISCUSS QUESTION BEFORE BIG CROWD

Notwithstanding inclement weather, the opera house at Cedarville was filled to two-thirds its capacity Thursday night for a debate between Cedarville College and Miami University on the subject, "Resolved, that Entrance of Women Into Industrial and Political Life is to be Deplored."

The affirmative side of the question was upheld by the Cedarville team composed of Miss Martha Waddle and Marion Hostetler, of Cedarville, and Joseph Free, Englewood, O., with Miss Eloise McLaughlin, Salem, O., as the silent member.

Miami's team, which took the negative side, was composed of Miss Willura Murray, Plain City, O.; Miss Paris, Springfield, and Miss Bloom, Washington C. H., with Miss Tillman, Dayton, as the silent member.

Prof. LeRoy Davis of Cedarville and Miss Metz of Miami acted as timekeepers. Dean C. W. Steele of Cedarville and Prof. Harry Williams of Miami are the coaches of the teams.

Under the plan in vogue, a winner of the debate was not immediately determined, pending a count of ballots distributed through the audience. The ballots asked the opinion of the spectators on the debate question, both before and after the debate, and finally, which team best presented its side of the subject. The ballots also attempted to ascertain whether the views of the spectators on the question discussed were weakened or strengthened as a result of the debate.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out? — Ecclesiastes, vii, 24.

CUTTING PAYROLL

Sen. Reed Smoot proposes that for the duration of the present emergency the Government cut its payroll by the simple process of not filling vacancies caused by the death or retirement of employees. The reduction thus effected would be gradual and painless. The sudden dismissal of a large number of Government employees at this time, if anything so miraculous could be imagined, would discomfort the persons dismissed. There is no distress caused when no one is appointed to a vacancy opened by natural causes.

Some idea of the extent to which the country would eventually benefit from the adoption of the Smoot plan may be gathered from the fact that during the last fiscal year no less than 43,233 vacancies in the Government service were filled by new appointments. The refusal to fill those vacancies would have reduced the Government personnel 7.1 per cent.

Since 1890 the population of the country has increased about 25 times, while the number of persons on the Government payroll has increased 4,500 times! Since June 30, 1929, there has been an increase in the personnel of Government agencies in Washington alone from 63,904 to 71,695.

Senator Smoot's proposal, at least, has aroused much comment.

IN HAWAII

Whatever may be the merits of the particular case which has called attention to conditions in Hawaii, it is perfectly plain that those conditions are not what they should be.

The same may be said, of course, of conditions in a number of large cities in this country, but the case is somewhat different. The gangsterism of our cities is difficult to fight because of the very size of the cities and because of the alliance between crime and politics, and incidentally, because the United States government cannot meddle with punishing state and local law violations.

In Chicago the United States government has been able to put in jail a man, said to be guilty of all sorts of crimes, including many murders, but not because of the murders. The federal authorities have been able to establish a case against this man for the violation of income tax laws. Perhaps if they could deal with murder in Illinois they might be successful in convicting him of murder. Probably if the income tax law violations were under the jurisdiction of state courts, he would not now be in jail.

But, in Hawaii, the crime complained of is, in effect, rural crime. There are no big cities, no place for the criminals to lose themselves effectively. There is reason to suppose that a moderately energetic attempt to enforce the laws would be successful.

In addition, in the case of Hawaii the United States government can take direct action. No doubt there will be a thoroughgoing investigation and such direct action will be taken.

But something more than this is needed. How has it come about that conditions in Hawaii have been permitted to get into such a wretched state? Just what conditions of local government are responsible? Surely there have been persons connected with the federal government who were aware of what was going on. How does it come that strong representations have not been made before this, or, if such representations were made, how does it come that nothing has been done to remedy these conditions? Why has it been necessary to wait until the attention of the people of this country and the whole world was called to these conditions by the unfortunate crime in question before the government made any serious move to do anything? — Springfield Sun.

Opposed To Extending War Debts

By FRED A. BRITTEN

Representative of Illinois
(Fred A. Britten was born in Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18, 1871. He received his education in public schools and business college. He began his business career in 1894. He became chairman of the Illinois civil service commission in 1909, and has been a member of the sixty-third, seventy-second congresses, representing the eleventh Illinois district. Britten is a Republican.)
The propaganda now being promoted in England, France and the United States for a further cancellation of the debts due us by foreign governments is the most audacious contempt of American intelligence that has yet come out of the world war.

Temporary world depression is the subtle vehicle upon which French and British statesmen will propose moving the entire war debt from Europe to the shoulders of the already overworked American taxpayer.

The moratorium recently approved by congress having failed gloriously to effect world prosperity, it must now be presumed that saddling all war debts on simple-minded but rich Uncle Sam is the only way to save Europe.

Suspended principal and interest payments due the United States in 1932 from Belgium, France, England, Italy, Poland, Rumania and Yugo-Slavia total less than 10 per cent of their combined military expenditures and are actually an insignificant fraction of their total budget expenditures.

Neither England nor France can publicly refuse to pay their bonds guaranteeing payment of money loaned them after the armistice. That would be an acknowledgment of bankruptcy. England is more prosperous than we are and France is probably the most prosperous nation on earth at the present moment. Congress has reached the end of its benevolence and will be duped no longer. There will be no further sentimental extensions or reductions. The world war was a European institution and its effect should be settled by the European governments involved.

The play for further American charity is nothing more nor less than unmitigated gall and the quicker European statesmen realize this the better for all concerned.

If general governmental debt cancellation will bring back prosperity, then the balance of the German war reparations payments under the Young plan should be immediately cancelled.
Under the Treaty of Versailles, England and France extorted from Germany more than 1,000,000 square miles of territory and a population of 9,000,000 people in eastern and western South Africa and certain Pacific Islands. This enormous area is rich in gold, diamonds, rubber, copra, ivory, coffee, cattle and fruits. Besides this tremendous conquest of land, the war has driven the German navy and its merchant auxiliaries off the seas and Britannia undoubtedly rules the waves, while France has become the financial and political dictator of all Europe.

MY NEW YORK

By JAMES ASWELL

NEW YORK. — Marginalia of a Madhattanite:

All newspapermen practicing in New York think they know just what specially-prepared printed fare out-of-towners like to consume. They imagine there is a special problem in serving up this newspaper dish, with carefully marked off taboos against various subjects. "Out-of-towners would be shocked by that," and "nobody but a New Yorker would understand or be interested in that."

Blah! Every publication originally intended for Manhattan consumption has succeeded across the land for the same reason which brought circulation in town. And nothing about New York interesting locally could fail to get wide-spread reaction outside, where the city is better known than it is to the natives, anyway.

The big gamblers and gunmen never pay in anything except cash.

Which is to say, the ex-gamblers, for there are not enough gamblers going nightly now to make the profession worth while.

There is a store in 42nd street which has been "going out of business" uninterruptedly for four years.

Now the burlesque houses have taken, in some instances, to giving away "peppy" cartoon booklets with those boxes of candy sold between the acts.

Broadway is the leastest lane in the world for "prize" candy offers so common a decade ago.

WHO?

Who goes to Harlem anymore? Up there, by the way, the cover charge is making its last stand, and the 42nd-half-pint ginger ale. An English paper the other day described Sixth avenue, in the West Forties as "a portion of New York's lower East Side."

That Russian railway wreck, after which the injured were laid out on a parallel track and promptly run over by a passing freight, was so astoundingly simple-minded as to make it understandable why the censors are tight about news from that land.

Collier's Magazine began to prosper prodigiously as soon as it moved offices to the 13th floor of 250 Park avenue, scornful of the superstition powerful enough to eliminate that floor from many a Manhattan structure.

DANGEROUS EMBERS

CONGRESSMEN ARE AGREED FATHER COX'S MARCHERS EXERTED INFLUENCE

WASHINGTON.—Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, foremost anti-red crusader in congress, agrees with Representative Paul J. Kvale, Minnesota's outstanding young radical, that the right sort of unemployment demonstration, such as the Rev. Father James R. Cox recently led from Pittsburgh to Washington, is a wholesome national influence in times like the present.

Representative Kvale agrees with Representative Fish, that the type of demonstration such as visited the capital under Communist leadership a month ahead of Father Cox's is calculated to do more harm than good.

Yet Father Cox, if anything was more outspoken than any of the avowedly revolutionary brethren in his threat of danger.

Aside from the fact that Father Cox's following, of between 10,000 and 15,000, outnumbered the earlier visitors by probably a dozen to one, there is no question of the greater impressiveness of the program carried out by the army under the Pittsburgh clergyman's command during its short stay in the city.

It is true that the first display was characterized by an atmospheric tenor which was entirely lacking from the second one.

The Communist organizers' little band was sullen.

Father Cox's host was thoroughly good natured.

In the former there was a hint of immediate peril—not so much from the rank and file, which were listless, but from the crowd's leaders, whose deliberate purpose obviously was to provoke a clash if possible.

The discipline maintained by Father Cox, on the other hand, over so large and hastily gathered a throng was remarkable.

Where the Communist management was pointlessly insulting, even to persons like Senator William H. King, when he courteously offered to act as an intermediary of the demonstrators in presenting their cause to congress, Father Cox and his lieutenants were scrupulously polite, and appreciative of all assistance tendered to them.

Nevertheless, whatever they may have muttered sotto voce, the Communist chiefs did not openly suggest violence.

It remained for Father Cox to use the plain term—"bloodshed."

Accounts differ as to whether, after saying to President Hoover, "Unless there is immediate relief, God help this country," he did or did not add, "There will be bloodshed."

However, there is no doubt that, under his own signature, in a Washington newspaper, on the day of the demonstration, he declared: "If congress refuses us, we are open to anything and everything—in other words, bloodshed."

"Perfectly orderly and proper," was Representative Fish's verdict after observing the Cox demonstrators from the steps of the Capitol building.

"Moreover," he continued, "this affair may be distinctly beneficial."

"There are complacent folk who, being personally comfortable, prefer to shut their eyes to the realities of today, to belittle the sufferings of some 10,000,000 of their fellow citizens. Not to mention that these visitors are fully entitled to recognition of their right to petition, it is to be hoped that their gathering here will serve to force upon the attention of smug, well-to-do indifference conditions which are worse than war in the affliction they are causing."

And the demonstration of a month earlier?

"That," said the representative, frowning, "was Communistic; organized in Moscow. It's certain, as I know from secret sources of information."

Indeed, most close observers suspected as much. The demonstration, armed flying red flags, with a Russian costumed band playing the Internationale, and proclaiming their Bolshevik sympathies through megaphones.

But no matter; the New Yorker is a good scout anyway, who would not kill even Communists, but favors quarantining them on an island.

"I believe," says Representative Kvale, "that Father Cox's pilgrimage will prove genuinely helpful, as a compact visualization of widespread distress."

"The visitation of a month previously was perhaps less so, from the bitterness of the antagonisms it aroused on both sides."

"Yet neither should be overlooked as a reminder to us here in Washington, of the urgency of speedy relief, or we may have other crowds besieging the capitol—may be with more of menace than any we have seen thus far."

Baby's Feeding Formula

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

"Please give simple instructions for feeding an infant artificially. And for the baby's food during the second and third year," writes a mother.

One can sympathize with the plea for simplification of infants' feeding formulae because most of the instructions on the subject are undoubtedly confusing. But it must be remembered a baby is a complicated sort of thing itself. The best simple advice is to consult a physician and follow his instructions.

The mother, however, has a right to understand the principles which he uses in constructing his formula and to that end the following simple rules are given.

First, the best food for any new born baby is mother's milk. Even if the baby is nursed for only a few weeks, it gets a start which will keep it healthy for some time.

The baby needs more food than the adult, according to its weight. It needs more energy and it needs more for growth—in all, more than twice as much as the adult. It needs more water. It needs more protein. The best guide to a baby's successful feeding is its weight. It should double its weight during the first year. "The chief cause of failure in infant feeding is lack of sufficient food," says an authority.

The best substitute for mother's milk under ordinary conditions of American living, is cow's milk. It must be free from bacteria so it should be boiled before using. Boiling renders it more digestible. Even so, cow's milk is not easily digested by infants. To render it more so lactic acid should be added (a teaspoon to a pint). This, however, is not considered necessary by all physicians.

Sugar must be added to cow's milk in order to give the infant the extra nutrition it requires. The sugars best digested and utilized by infants are dextrose and maltose. Ordinary table sugar, or granulated sugar, is neither of these; it is cane sugar. Dextrose and maltose can be obtained in most powdered foods for infants. The secret of their success lies in this fact. They are more expensive than corn syrup which also contains dextrose.

For a normal infant a month old, it is usually advised to give six bottles a day at four-hour intervals, four ounces at a feeding. The formula will be: twelve ounces of milk, one ounce of sugar, twelve ounces of water.

Dissolve two tablespoons of corn syrup or sugar in the water or in the milk. Select a fresh bottle of milk and mix by inverting several times. After dissolving the sugar add the milk and water and boil for three minutes. Remove the scum and cool. (Add 5 c. c. of lactic acid if using that plan.) Pour the milk into six (previously boiled) bottles and stopper them with sterile cotton corks or paper caps. Warm the mixture to body temperature before offering the bottle to the baby.

Hubbys Girl Friend Supplanted

By MRS. VIRGINIA LEE

"DEAR MISS LEE: I have been going with a married man for some time. He is twice my age. I thought he was true to me, but he wasn't. He had a girl friend. I wouldn't be true to me. I found out all the time he had been going with me he had been going with another woman, so I made up my mind to quit him."

"I know his wife, and do you think I should go to her and tell her my story of the awful sin I have done and ask her to forgive me?"

And incidentally get him into hot water and break up his home. Tiny? Revenge would be the real object of such a course, wouldn't it? Be honest. "There is no fury like a woman scorned"—you know the quotation.

No, don't go to his wife. If she doesn't know about you, let her ignorance be her bliss. Your going to her would do no good to her or to yourself, and would do harm. She'll find out about her husband and his affairs soon enough. There always are anxious friends that "feel it their duty" to enlighten a wife in such affairs. Let them do the dirty work. He'll be punished sooner or later, too, so don't let that worry you. Such sins usually find one out."

BLONDEY: Yes, love is quite apt to cause heartache. Blondey, you don't have proper control of your emotions, you know, when you're in love, and little things hurt that you wouldn't notice at another time.

If both love and acknowledge it you have a corresponding amount of joy to balance the heartache. I'm afraid the boy friend either doesn't care quite as much as you do or he won't acknowledge it yet. He may be a little embarrassed when he meets you on the street and that accounts for his cool greeting.

Unless he has a good excuse for breaking dates, however, I don't think you should let him get away with it. "Standing him up" a few times might break him of that little habit or at least make him tell you his reason next time he does it. It's usually the girl who's afraid of losing the boy friend and so lets him get away with murder, that loses him.

TROUBLED SUE: When I read the first part of your letter I thought that your husband's case simply was one of complex due to having been snubbed and overlooked in his early years. Or, in the case of his attentions to the older woman, with a longing for the love of a mother which he might have missed. But the latter part of your letter would lead me to think that he may need a doctor's advice. Why don't you talk the matter over with your family physician—or any thoroughly reliable doctor?

I think you should visit our people. You surely owe them an occasional visit. If nothing can be done to cure your husband of his obsession, no one could blame you if you left him, but try to think that he is not entirely responsible—that his actions are due to an abnormal state.

WONDERING: It's pretty risky to go to live with a husband's people. You know the old saying, "There is no house large enough to hold two women." One is apt to find it true. Much better have your own home, even if it's only a room or two.

As to leaving your mother whom you help to support, can she get along without you? Talk the matter over with her. Few mothers want to stand in the way of their children's happiness.

PERPLEXED: I think as you and the boy friend seem to quarrel so much I'd stop going with him for awhile. Maybe if you take the initiative and refuse to date him, he'll appreciate your friendship more. At any rate, it will give him a chance to drop you if he really is tired of the affair. And you will be happier in making new friendships.

SPORT SNAP SHOTS

FRAMED

Harness horse fans, if a state ment attributed to Dave Bishop of Warren County is to be considered authentic, now know why Ray Henley and Peter Nutonia, with one exception, were never entered in the same race during the 1931 campaign.

Both pacers were considered about on a par last year, standing head and shoulders above the rest of the nags, but their respective owners, according to Bishop, would never allow them to meet in a championship race.

Peter Nutonia, owned by H. H. Arbogast, Bellefontaine, was in the stable of "Spec" Erskine, Dayton reinsman, while Ray Henley, the four-year-old speedster owned by George Hagler, near Xenia, was campaigned by his son, Trainer Joe Hagler.

The Warren County horseman, speaking his mind at the annual speed conference of the Ohio Fair Managers' Association in Columbus this week, charged owners of favorite horses with purposely not allowing their steeds to meet in match races.

He singled out Ray Henley and Peter Nutonia as a case at point, declaring that "even when the two 1931 favorites were at the same race meet, the owners would not allow a race between them."

Doubtless, from a sporting viewpoint, this policy on the part of the two owners cannot be applauded. From a business or money-making standpoint, the respective owners can hardly be blamed. The two pacers probably "cleaned up" for their owners at virtually all Ohio tracks by racing against inferior competition in different classes. Few horsemen campaigning on the smaller circuits can afford to overlook any purse money just for the sake of a sport-loving public.

It may be recalled that Ray Henley and Peter Nutonia actually did race in the same event once last year. That was in the 2:12 pace at the Carthage Fair, a week after the Greene County Fair. Ray Henley won the first heat in 2:07 1/2, with Peter Nutonia second. Arbogast's pacer won the next two, however, and the race, in 2:07 and 2:10 with Hagler's wiggler a close second each time. Nevertheless, the question of which horse is the faster remains undecided although Ray Henley sports a faster record than Peter Nutonia.

Another thing to be considered is that the two horses are half brothers. Due to this relationship, perhaps the owners felt the two pacers did not care to race against each other. We may be wrong, of course, but there is that possibility. Both pacers were sired by Peter Henley, and Ray Henley has a faster mark than his sire. The Hagler-driven horse, in his second start at the Lexington Ky. trots, won the first heat of the 2:14 pace in the official time of 2:01 1/2, clipping three-fourths of a second off his best previous mark. Ray still shades his half-brother, who cut his record to 2:02 1/2 in 1931.

E. L. Churchill, veteran racing scribe, once described Ray Henley as the "best pacer paraded before the public in the last two racing years" and also as the "Single G." of tomorrow.

BATH HIGH TACKLES STRONG OPPONENTS

Osborn Bath High's basketball quintet has two games in prospect this week-end, both away from home.

The Blue and Gold quintet visits Sulphur Grove to meet Wayne Twp. cagers Friday night, and on Saturday night will face the Stivers High reserves at the Dayton fairground coliseum in the opener of a basketball carnival to be staged on the coliseum floor that evening.

Bath basketballers split even with the Orange and Black second team last season, losing the first time, 17 to 16, but winning a return game at Osborn, 23 to 7.

ST. BRIGID TOSSERS VICTORS IN CLOSE GAME WITH SIDNEY TEAM

Successfully withstanding a determined rally on the part of the visiting quintet in the closing minutes of the game, St. Brigid High School basketballers won their second straight victory by vanquishing Holy Angels of Sidney, 16 to 14, at Central High gymnasium Thursday night.

The contest was close throughout and at the half the score was even at 6 to 6. The Xenia parochial school team stepped out in front in the last half and with the game almost over, held a five-point lead that finally dwindled to two points before the final whistle blew.

Joe Fletcher, forward, and Joe Zennl, guard, shared scoring honors for St. Brigid with six points apiece, while Guido Pesavento contributed two baskets.

St. Brigid won the game at the three loop games scheduled Friday night; Troy here

Fairview, Greenville, Piqua, Miamisburg Will Be Busy

Renewal of skirmishing along the Miami Valley League basketball front is scheduled for Friday night with three pitched battles in prospect at as many different sections along the line.

With John Campbell, fleet all-league guard, portraying the role of the valiant Hector, the mighty men of Troy will be guests of Xenia Central's not-so-bold Buccaneers at Central gymnasium.

Dayton Fairview, admitted as a probationary member, will get its first taste of league competition at Greenville, while Miamisburg will be host to Piqua's quintet.

Sidney, which inflicted upon Xenia last week the first defeat a Central High basketball team has encountered since the league came into being, will have non-league competition this week-end.

Sidney's enforced idleness gives Miamisburg an opportunity to obtain undisputed possession of the league leadership, at least for one week, providing the Burgers beat Piqua, as expected, Coach Horace English's team handed the Rangy Greenville combination a 19 to 17 reverse last week.

Troy, Piqua and Fairview will be playing their first M. V. L. contests, although the Trojans served advance notice they are capable of beating Piqua by defeating the Indians last Friday night in a contest that will not be counted in the league standing. However, the score was fairly close and the outcome of the regular league game, to be played later on the Piqua floor, may be uncertain.

Its remarkable twenty-game winning streak in four years of league competition now nothing more than a sweet memory, Xenia Central, the tension of keeping a perfect record unscathed, ought to display improvement against Troy.

While the liberty may be taken to install the Trojans as favorites to win, the Buccaneers, playing on their own floor are about due to break their prolonged losing streak. It all depends on how close a watch they keep on one particular player, to wit, Campbell, one of the fastest and best all-around basketball players in captivity in the league last season.

RACCOON SEASON IS CLOSED ON FRIDAY

Under an order promulgated by the state conservation council in October, for a period of five years, dating from October 1, 1931, it will be lawful to take raccoons only from November 15 to January 15.

This announcement is made by Elwood D. Stroup, Greene County game warden, who said many sportsmen, unaware of the new law, are under the impression that the open season for raccoon does not expire until February 1. Friday, however, is the deadline day.

The season for opossum and skunk ends February 1 and for muskrat and mink on March 1. Warden Stroup again reminds hunters of the necessity of procuring 1932 hunting licenses.

N. Y. STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The road to higher prices in the stock market this morning was again blocked by profit taking and professional selling. The rails were unsettled by the further postponement of the Chicago railroad wage conference until this afternoon, which indicated that no authentic report of definite progress would be available during the market session.

NOONDAY MEETINGS WILL END SATURDAY

The concluding noonday meeting of a series which has been held in the Bijou Theater the past two weeks, will be held Saturday noon with the Rev. E. A. Rager, pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, as speaker and the Rev. Ralph E. Stewart, director of the music.

The noonday meetings have been under the auspices of the Laymen's Evangelical Association and according to those in charge have been well attended and have served as a spiritual impetus for the revivals in the city. At Thursday's service special mention was made of appreciation for James T. Hilbert, who has donated the use of the theater without cost.

The Laymen's Association was organized a year ago among men of the various churches of Xenia for Christian fellowship and to promote evangelism. Members of the association have visited several churches speaking and assisting in the proclamation of the gospel.

The association also appreciates the cooperation of pastors of the city in attending the services and announcing the services from their respective pulpits.

CHURCH TO BAPTISE MEMBERS ON FRIDAY

Believers' baptism will be administered to several awaiting church membership Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in connection with the revival services. It is announced. The baptism will also be held Sunday morning according to the Rev. J. R. Lunsford.

The Rev. Ralph E. Stewart, evangelist, will speak Friday evening and also Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening the Rev. and Mrs. Rollins, who are on their way to Virginia in the "Good News Special," a large bus that serves as their living quarters as well as their preaching quarters, attended the service. Mr. Rollins also took part in a street meeting with the Rev. Mr. Stewart just prior to the noon day service at the Bijou Theater.

Thursday evening the Rev. Mr. Stewart preached on "God Knows" at the revival services.

FLUE BURNED OUT

No damage resulted when a flue burned out at the home of David R. Lewis, 209 E. Second St., Thursday at 6:48 p. m. Firemen answered the alarm which was the third for 1932.

Held as Wrecker

The mysterious wrecking of a number of freight trains on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on the Horse-shoe Curve, near Greensburg, Pa., has been solved, according to police, with the confession of Luther Mazur (above), 17, of Cresson Shaft, Cambria County, Pa. Authorities says the youth has admitted wrecking the trains, causing thousands of dollars' worth of damage. The most recent smash was last week, when 14 cars were derailed and two men injured. One man died in a previous wreck.

Put An End To Putting-Off

Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

To Parents

Success is dreaming plus doing—perseverance turns air castles into brick bungalows. Our children need a faith in the teachings of God, but likewise they need the guidance that will turn this faith into constructive work. The Sunday School supplies both. Go with them tomorrow.

FULFILLMENT

IT'S splendid to plan and resolve! But if every good impulse might be carried on to fulfillment, just think what a wonderful change we should see!

The gift that you almost bestowed, But forgot in the hurry next day; The letter you thought you would write; The encouraging words you would say;

That lost opportunity which You fully intended to seize; That cause which you meant to endorse—

O, what has become of all these? To will is so easy; but stay! The test is, what did you do? To plan and resolve—that is fine, If you carry it out when you're through!

The Holy Communion is the innermost sanctuary of Christian worship. It is the commemoration of the highest expression of love. It is the chamber of humility where only the lowly of heart enter into true fellowship. Here by faith we feed upon Him whose body was broken, whose blood was shed for us. FULFILLMENT

IT'S splendid to plan and resolve! But if every good impulse might be carried on to fulfillment, just think what a wonderful change we should see!

The gift that you almost bestowed, But forgot in the hurry next day; The letter you thought you would write; The encouraging words you would say;

That lost opportunity which You fully intended to seize; That cause which you meant to endorse— O, what has become of all these? To will is so easy; but stay! The test is, what did you do? To plan and resolve—that is fine, If you carry it out when you're through!

The couple was married in Xenia February 2, 1921, no children being born of the union. The plaintiff asserts her husband left her three years ago, telling her he was going to Dayton to get a job, obtain rooms and send for her but that she has not seen him since then.

FORECLOSURE CASE

A foreclosure suit has been filed in Common Pleas Court by The Home Building and Savings Co., against William Gamble, Juanita Gamble, Robert W. McGuffie and Marie A. McGuffie. Attorney H. D. Smith represents the plaintiff.

OHIO BELL WORKERS AFFECTED BY ODER CUTTING WORK TIME

Thirty-five employees of The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. in the Xenia area are affected by a company order requiring every employee to take one-half day off each week in order to more equally distribute loss of time of employees. The order was issued because of a decline in general business which has prevented more than 50 per cent of the company's 11,000 employees from working full time during the last two years. Under the new order all employees, from the president of the corporation down to the office boys, will share in part time with a corresponding reduction in pay.

The company feels that this arrangement, staggering the half-day off through the week and among the employees, will eliminate the necessity of cutting either the number of employees or the wages of employees.

The plan will be put in operation Monday and will be so arranged that service will not be impaired and offices will be open.

TRAVELING MAN ENDORSES ALL-BRAN

Says It Brought Relief From Constipation

"I want to take this unsolicited means to tell you what ALL-BRAN has done for me.

"I am on the road all the time, and this has a tendency to constipate me, or any one who travels all the time. I used to suffer a great deal from constipation, until some one told me about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating this cereal, I have been cured of constipation. I heartily endorse it to any one suffering as I did."

Mr. B. F. Pollard, Marion, N. C. Constipation is caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN provides both. At the same time, it supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Being a natural corrective ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming.

How much better than risking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation—serious cases, with every meal. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

the usual hours. Company executives, plant officials, linemen, telephone girls and office employees will be affected by the order in the Xenia area, it is announced by H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager.

The Xenia office will work out its own schedule for the half-day lay-off program.

Safety In Saving

Before 1867, when building and loan companies were first organized, folks hid their money, in FEAR.

In 1932 folks are saving here, in CONFIDENCE.

Mattresses, chimney corners, and old socks today are considered mighty foolish places to hide savings.

Hoarded money in safety deposit boxes never grows... it is a continual temptation to spend.

Thirty-eight years ago the people of Xenia were given this better place in which to protect their savings... and at the same time keep their money in profit-earning circulation.

Several times during those years, peace and war, prosperity and panic, have rolled over this land, yet never has a depositor in The Home Building and Savings Company failed to receive his interest or lost a penny of his principal.

WIFE PLAINTIFF IN DIVORCE PETITION; OTHER COURT NEWS

On grounds of gross neglect of duty and willful absence from home for more than three years, Edith Maud Parker seeks a divorce from William Parker and restoration to her maiden name of Turner in a suit filed in Common Pleas Court. The couple was married in Xenia February 2, 1921, no children being born of the union. The plaintiff asserts her husband left her three years ago, telling her he was going to Dayton to get a job, obtain rooms and send for her, but that she has not seen him since then.

FORECLOSURE CASE

A foreclosure suit has been filed in Common Pleas Court by The Home Building and Savings Co. against William Gamble, Juanita Gamble, Robert W. McGuffie and Marie A. McGuffie. Attorney H. D. Smith represents the plaintiff.

AWARD JUDGMENTS

The Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary of the United Presbyterian Church of North America has been awarded a note judgment for $23,098.70 in a suit against Mary L. Bryson and others in Common Pleas Court. The Citizens National Bank also won a judgment for $8,667.63 on its cross-petition and the bank's mortgage on property involved in the case was adjudged a second best lien.

CASE DISMISSED

Suit filed by Mary Elizabeth Bigger against Warner K. Bigger in Common Pleas Court has been dismissed and a divorce decree previously granted the husband has been affirmed. A property settlement was agreed upon by the parties to the case.

WINS JUDGMENT

John T. Harbline, Jr., has recovered a note judgment for $127 against Charles H. and Rilla M. Wilson in Common Pleas Court.

GREENE COUNTIANS TO VISIT CAPITAL

The Misses Violet McColaugh, Jamestown, and Carma Hostetter, Cedarville and Rex Blac, Bellbrook, winners in a county contest conducted recently by the Anti-Saloon League, left Thursday for Columbus, where they joined a group of more than 100 young people, winners in the same contest throughout the state, and continued on to Washington, D. C. Friday. The group expects to be gone a week and in addition to visiting places of interest in the capital city, will attend the national convention of the Anti-Saloon League.

OHIO BELL WORKERS AFFECTED BY ORDER CUTTING WORK TIME

Thirty-five employees of The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. in the Xenia area are affected by a company order requiring every employee to take one-half day off each week in order to more equally distribute loss of time of employees. The order was issued because of a decline in general business which has prevented more than 50 per cent of the company's 11,000 employees from working full time during the last two years. Under the new order all employees, from the president of the corporation down to the office boys, will share in part time with a corresponding reduction in pay.

The company feels that this arrangement, staggering the half-day off through the week and among the employees, will eliminate the necessity of cutting either the number of employees or the wages of employees.

The plan will be put in operation Monday and will not be impaired and service will be open

TRAVELING MAN ENDORSES ALL-BRAN

Says It Brought Relief From Constipation

"I want to take this unsolicited means to tell you what ALL-BRAN has done for me.

"I am on the road all the time, and this has a tendency to constipate me, or any one who travels all the time. I used to suffer a great deal from constipation, until some one told me about Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Since I have been eating this cereal, I have been cured of constipation. I heartily endorse it to any one suffering as I did." — Mr. B. F. Pollard, Marion, N. C.

Constipation is caused by lack of two things in the diet: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines. Vitamin B to tone the intestinal tract. Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN provides both. At the same time, it supplies iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes. Being a natural corrective ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming.

How much better than risking pills and drugs—so often harmful. Two tablespoonsful daily will overcome most types of constipation—serious cases, with every meal. If you have intestinal trouble not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or cream, or use in cooking. At all grocers in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

the usual hours. Company executives, plant officials, linemen, telephone girls and office employees will be affected by the order in the Xenia area, it is announced by H. W. Cleaver, commercial manager. The Xenia office will work out its own schedule for the half-day lay-off program.

Safety In Saving

Before 1867, when building and loan companies were first organized, folks hid their money, in FEAR.

In 1932 folks are saving here, in CONFIDENCE.

Mattresses, chimney corners, and old socks today are considered mighty foolish places to hide savings.

Hoarded money in safety deposit boxes never grows... it is a continual temptation to spend.

Thirty-eight years ago the people of Xenia were given this better place in which to protect their savings... and at the same time keep their money in profit-earning circulation.

Several times during those years, peace and war, prosperity and panic, have rolled over this land, yet never has a depositor in The Home Building and Savings Company failed to receive his interest or lost a penny of his principal.

1931 WARMEST FOR 60 YEARS

BOSTON—For sixty years the weather bureau has hourly tabulated the varieties of the thermometer, and religiously made a record. But in all that time no 12-month period even came close to 1931, which goes down in the annals of the department as the warmest year in its history.

VEGETABLE GARDEN GAINS IN ECONOMIC VALUE SAYS EXPERT

"Vegetable Gardening is one of the three farm industries which is gaining in economic returns," said E. R. Lancashire, garden specialist of Ohio State University, when he addressed Greene County gardeners in the assembly room of the Court House, Thursday.

Mr. Lancashire explained that health of individuals might be regulated by the use of raw and cooked vegetables. The calcium and vitamin content of vegetables is very high, therefore if used in sufficient quantities aid very materially in increasing the resistance of bacterial infection. They also assist in relieving the susceptibility to colds.

The gardeners present also received definite help in choice of seeds, how and where to plant, and the best way of transplanting different kinds of plants. One of the primary requirements for securing a good garden is to properly build the land for gardening.

Mr. Lancashire said, and he gave a detailed description of how the land may be prepared so that better quality products may be obtained in a shorter period of time with less expended effort for cultivation.

Mr. Lancashire offered to send out timely information to any Greene County person who might be interested. This material may be obtained by giving your name to either E. A. Drake, county agricultural agent, or Miss Ruth Radford, home demonstration agent at the Greene County Farm Bureau office.

Talkie Film Hit By Jinx, Producer Unwinds Kinks

Old-timers in Hollywood are shaking their heads over the recent epidemic of "jinx" pictures—films which are delayed by a series of mishaps or, perhaps, tragedies. End of Dope Trail

A warning of what inevitably waits at the end of the "dope road" is contained in the confession of 17-year-old Cleveland Roberts, who is held in Los Angeles, charged with the slaying of A. R. Schartzler, a Christmas card artist. Roberts, according to police, confessed he shot Schartzler after the latter had given him dope and made him an addict, afterwards cutting off his supply.

GRANGES PLANNING EXCHANGE OF PLAYS FOR THREE MONTHS

Six Greene County Grange organizations have planned an exchange of plays to be given in the county during the months of January, February and March.

Horace Ferguson of Beaver, Mrs. J. E. Mason, Caesarscreek and Miss Nell Mossman of Jamestown composed a committee to assist in the organization of the play exchange. The organizations have been divided into two units meaning that each organization will give its production at home and repeat it in two other districts so that each community will have the advantage of seeing three plays on its own stage.

Spring Valley, Charity and Xenia Granges compose one circuit. Spring Valley plans to present "On Ione's Trail" at its own Grange Hall the evening of January 19 and the same cast will repeat the production at the Xenia Grange Hall January 22.

ILLUSTRATED BIBLE LESSON

Jesus and Nicodemus

John 3:1-21

By the Rev. Alvin E. Bell And Alfred J. Buescher

Nicodemus—whose name means "victor over the people"—was a member of the Sanhedrin or Council of Seventy, corresponding to our senate. Nicodemus, as a representative of the Sanhedrin, "came to Jesus by night" to interview Him and to report to the Sanhedrin what attitude should be adopted toward Him.

As Jesus had no dwelling in Jerusalem he passed the night in the open, probably in the Garden of Gethsemane on the slope of Mount Olivet. Nicodemus complimented Jesus as "a teacher come from God," but Jesus responded that "Except one be born anew, he cannot see the Kingdom of God."

As Nicodemus questioned on being "born anew," Jesus reminded him of how in the days of Moses, when the people had sinned and were punished through being bitten by serpents, God had Moses make a great serpent of brass and lift it on a pole in the camp, and whoever looked upon it was saved.

"And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up, that whosoever believeth may in Him have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have eternal life."

GOLDEN TEXT: John 3:16.

Jamestown, Beaver and Caesarscreek. Jamestown plans to present "At the Sign of the Pewter Jug" in the Jamestown Grange Hall January 26, repeating in Caesarscreek community on the evening of January 27.

Other plays that have been chosen are: Charity, "The Wild Oats Boy;" Caesarscreek, "Mammy's Lil' Wild Rose;" Beaver, "Out of Bounds;" and Xenia, "Beads on a String." The dates for these plays will be published in the near future.

The text says: "I CARRIED the makin's for years. Got so I could roll 'em single-handed. But there's no real economy in it. 'The way I figure is this: A fellow don't spend so much on himself but what he can afford to enjoy the best in smokes.' 'Myself... I smoke Chesterfields. They cured me of rollin' my own. First off, you get better tobacco. 'I'm not knockin' the makin's... but it stands to reason Chesterfields wouldn't be where they are today if they didn't give you the finest tobacco. I like their aroma. 'Plenty of Turkish in Chesterfields...and you don't get that in the makin's. And there must be something about the blend, too... you can't get a milder, better taste... not anywhere! 'Got a right good opinion of myself, but I don't figure I'm as clever as those cigarette-making machines. Every single Chesterfield is round and filled right...beats anything you can roll yourself.
